उपहारः सद्भावनायाः उच्चतरूपं व्यक्तं करोति।

A gift expresses the highest form of goodwill...

THE STORY OF UPAHAAR

In a world where connections matter more than ever, Gifts have become more than just tokens. They are gesture that speaks volumes.

Upahaar was born out of a simple realization: most corporate gifts feel impersonal, mass produced and quickly forgotten. We saw an opportunity to change that to bring thoughtfulness, design and identity into the art of gifting for business.

What started as a small curating gift boxes with personal customization for a few local clients, quickly turned into movement. A movement to make gifting more meaningful more memorable and more connecting to human.

As our client base grew, so did our offerings. We invested in In-house customization technology to build a reliable supply chain of artisans and product partners and most importantly, listened closely to what companies really wanted i.e. Quality, Personalization and Purpose.

Whether you're welcoming new employees, celebrating milestones or strengthening client relationships, we help you deliver appreciation in a box which is beautifully packed, fully customized and responsibly sourced.

Today, Upahaar proudly serves Startups, Corporates, Institutions, Social groups, Business associations across the India.
